News of the County

Special Correspondence from Near-by Towns

DOYLESTOWN.

In the court news that appeared in the Gazette last week was a brief reference to the remarks of Judge Yerkes concerning violations of the liquor law accomplished by resorting to the organization of clubs or systematic congregation of men and boys at some place where liquor is consumed openly upon the plea that the one in whose house it is drunk is performing an act of hospitality. The remarks of the court have attracted attention in distant parts of the State, and as they applied to the Bristol cases heard during the week they are given in full. They are as follows:

It must be understood that the provisions of the law against furnishing by sale, gift or otherwise intoxicating drinks on election day, on Sundays, to minors, or persons of known intemperate habits, or to persons while visibly affected by intoxicating drinks, applies to a case where persons join together and by mutual contributions purchase liquors for their own use on the prohibited days, or where they, or any of them, belong to the prohibited classes. The expression "otherwise" furnish is a comprehensive one. Its application is not confined to cases where one exclusively furnishes the drinks, but applies equally where he contributes toward procuring the supplies, and he cannot destroy the criminality of the act by himself partaking of the supplies thus furnished along with the others.

The fact that the liquor is procured by contribution eliminates any question of hospitality from the case. There can be no hospitality on the part of the owner of a house in permitting men to drink liquor at his table for which they, themselves pay.

In stating this position, and by the depositions of this case, the Court proposes that it shall be publicly known in every alley and byway of Bristol and the other boroughs, and in every nook and corner of this county, that as a matter of law two or more minors or two or more drunken loafers cannot meet together and "chip in" or contribute to buy liquors for their own use, or the use of any of them, and thereby evade the penalties of the 17th section of the Act of 1887. In such case each is guilty of furnishing to the other, and, upon conviction, will receive the severest punishment.

We instruct the Constables that it is their duty to inquire into all places where they have reason to believe this practice prevails, and to report persons and places where they learn of the offence. Furthermore, they are to report all wholesale dealers who sell liquor to such persons.

In addition, we now give notice that hereafter, if it shall appear in the course of any trial that any licensed dealer furnishes liquors to such persons, or their representatives as clubs, or under any other name, the renewal of license will be refused to such dealer as an unfit person without further notice.

We propose to strike at the root of this worst form of the violation of the liquor laws, and if the citizens and officers in Bristol will show their good intentions in works rather than by proclaiming them in useless bombast, such institutions as the "Owl Club," the "Suicide Club," and the "West End Club" will be but a memory as unknown in Bristol as in the desert.

The report of the Grand Jury was made too late to publish last week. It was quite a lengthy report, and touched upon matters not often referred to in a general way by such bodies. A few extracts may be of interest to the Gazette's readers. They are as follows:

In view of the terror which has of late spread over the State as the result of the kidnapping of children for the purpose of levying blackmail, we suggest to our Representatives, and trust that they may succeed, in having enacted a law of such rigor as may deter the evil disposed from the perpetration of this offence.

We are gratified at the tendency towards better highways upon the part of certain townships and Supervisors throughout the county, and notice that where modern methods of road improvement have been employed the general public has received great convenience and benefit therefrom, and a betterment of the condition of property and society in many ways. But we also deplore the disposition of the Supervisors of Durham township who have stone crushers and improved facilities for making and keeping in condition their roads, in resorting to primitive methods for the gratification of such taxpayers who desire to "work out" their road tax.

We have examined the statement of the finances of Bucks county and approve of the management of county affairs as conducted by the present Board of County Commissioners.

The Grand Jury advised that more economy be observed at the County House as the appropriations are increasing, and suggested that a library be established for the inmates. The Steward and matron were complimented upon their management of the institution.

The remains of Mrs. Anna Ross, late of Columbus, Ohio, were interred at the Catholic Cemetery here on Tuesday. Mrs. Ross had made her home in Doylestown at various times. She died in St. Anthony's Convent in Columbus, aged 82. She was the widow of the late Jesse Jenkins Ross, who was minister to Sicily during the administration of President Pierce. Her husband was a brother of the late Thomas Ross, Esq., of Doylestown. Mrs. Ross and her husband entered the Catholic Church after a son, Rev. Walter Ross, of Ohio, now a prominent priest, had accepted that faith. She was buried beside her husband in the Catholic cemetery.

A very successful series of revival services held at the Doylestown Presbyterian Church closed on Friday evening last. They were conducted by Rev. James B. Ely, of Philadelphia, a prominent figure in tent work in that city. On Sunday evening Christian Endeavor Day was observed. A. G. Butler, of Philadelphia, spoke to a large audience, describing the World's Convention at London.

The report of the Board of Local Visitors appointed by the Court to visit the County House has been filed. The visitors found the institution in good condition. The members of the Board were paid $25 for their services and were re-appointed. They are Charles S. Vandegrift, Dr. J. B. Walter, Sarah B. Knowles and Elizabeth J. Greir.

Mrs. Maria T. McCoy, widow of the late Dr. Gilbert Rodman McCoy, died at her residence here on Friday, aged 82 years. Mrs. McCoy lived in Doylestown since 1849, and she and her husband were prominent socially. She was a devout member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Her funeral took place on Monday afternoon.

A Remedy for the Grippe.

A remedy recommended for patients afflicted with the Grippe is KEMP'S BALSAM, which is especially adapted for the throat and lungs. Don't wait for the first symptoms of the disease, get a bottle today and keep it for use the moment it is needed. If neglected the grippe has a tendency to bring on pneumonia. KEMP'S BALSAM prevents this by keeping the cough loose and the lungs free from inflammation. All druggists sell KEMP'S BALSAM at 25c. and 50c.

TULLYTOWN.

What might have been a very serious accident occurred a week ago last Tuesday, the 29th ultimo, at the overhead bridge crossing the Pennsylvania railroad at the north line of the borough. Dr. C. H. Read was driving across the bridge when his horse became frightened by the line of freight cars occupying one of the main tracks at this point and bolted down the hill toward the town. Near the foot of the grade the horse brought up against the wagon of William Leigh, throwing the Doctor through the glass front of the carriage and inflicting a gash in his head about four inches in length. The wound was dressed and sewed up by Dr. Richards, of Fallsington, and while Dr. Read was seriously weakened by loss of blood, his pluck and energy enabled him not only to undergo the operation of closing the wound without the use of anesthetics but to go about and attend to his practice a few days after the accident. The carriage is almost a complete wreck by reason of the collision with Mr. Leigh's farm wagon.

The massing of freight cars by the railroad company has been frequently complained of by drivers using this road, and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company owes it to itself, as well as to the community, to abate this nuisance.

The regular meeting of Borough Council was held last Monday evening. The principal business of the evening was the passage of a resolution petitioning the County Commissioners to rebuild the bridge over Tullytown creek.

By the condemnation of the turnpike this bridge, which is in very bad condition, must be taken in charge either by the borough or by the county. As the line of Main street is one of the most frequently travelled roads in the lower end of the county it seems no more than fair that the county should take charge of this bridge.

There is little doubt but that the County Commissioners will take this view of the matter and make the bridge a county bridge.

The resolution introduced last Monday evening was unanimously passed by the Council of Tullytown.

The acceptance of Ordinance 13 by the Trenton and Bristol Street Railway Company, which grants the company the right to occupy Main street within the limits of the borough was received and filed.

The residents of this borough who were anxious to cut ice were gratified last Saturday by the commencement of the work of filling the ice house at the mill pond. The work was continued on Sunday and Monday, and while it is not probable that the house will be filled, there will be a considerable supply of ice next summer in this house, which will save much hauling from Bristol and the payment of freight on ice shipped from Trenton.

The pulpit of the M. E. Church was occupied last Sunday by the Rev. Mr. Gray, of Princeton. Mr. Gray is still a student at the University but is blessed with a pleasing delivery and very favorably impressed his auditors at both services.

The preparations for the two children's cantatas to be rendered at the M. E. Church next week are fast bringing the young entertainers into proper shape and a fine entertainment is anticipated.

Friday evening at the business meeting of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Eddington Presbyterian Church the president, Fred Paist, assigned the work to the newly-appointed committees. At the meeting of the society Sunday evening Miss Lizzie Lorimer sang a solo.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather of Wednesday evening of last week several persons were present at the sociable given by the Y. P. S. C. E. in the lecture room of the Eddington Presbyterian Church. Miss Penrose, who was to deliver a missionary lecture, was not present. The social committee had provided a list of games for the entertainment of the company. Coffee and sandwiches were served.

The Street committee is sending out notices to property owners to set their curbs and lay their sidewalks as soon as spring opens.

Mr. Buckman has the work of putting cinders on the streets nearly completed. This has been a great convenience during the thaw. Anyone would think the entire population belonged to the "middle of the road party."

The property of Mrs. Rhoetta Woolston will be sold at Sheriff's sale on Feb. 22, 1901. The sale will be held in the borough instead of at Doylestown to afford an opportunity to people in this vicinity to secure a valuable property at probably a low figure.

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 7, 1901.

In the language of the immortal George Washington, Mrs. Nation can say "I did it with my little hatchet."

The bill which gives Philadelphia a fifth common pleas court has passed both branches of the Legislature and with the Governor's signature will become operative. The Quaker city has as much need for the additional court as an ambitious canine has for a duplicate caudal appendage.

A burdensome responsibility has been lifted from the shoulders of the Republican stalwart organization, since the rights granted by the Constitution have been restored to Pennsylvania, and the great State is again represented at Washington with its full quota of United States Senators.

Former Councilman George W. Strauser has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination of State Senator to succeed Hampton W. Bice. Mr. Strauser is a strenuous Republican who has a host of friends who will be pleased to do him honor in the direction of his present ambition.

The movement on foot at Harrisburg to amend the libel laws, is neither wise, judicious nor tolerable. The proposed legislation is a direct attack upon the freedom of the press, and its enactment would be an encouragement to wrong-doers. The provisions of the Vorhees bill are preposterous, and deserve a crushing rebuke.

The Hoy jury bill, which is the old McCarrell bill under a new name, has passed the Legislature by a large majority. The insincerity of its opponents of two years ago is attested by the vote it received in the House a few days ago. The bill takes away from the prosecuting attorney the right to stand jurors aside until a favorable panel is secured. The Hay bill is a just measure.

Senator Hanna's ship subsidy bill is not having very smooth sailing in the Senate. In fact a great many people—Republicans, too—fail to appreciate the wisdom of taxing the masses for the benefit of a few opulent ship owners. Nobody disproves the idea of a revival of the merchant marine, but such revival induced by paternalism is a question in many minds. This country can compete with the effete nations of the old world in other lines without government bonuses, and under proper laws it is believed we can also be mistress of the seas.

Nowadays the metropolitan newspapers have so many entangling alliances with corporations, political factions and various institutions, that free and untrammelled editorial expression is rather the exception than the rule. General Harrison Gray Otis, of the Los Angeles Times, says that the bona-fide American journal, acknowledging no master but God and the laws of its country, and no dictator but the great American public, declares itself with candor and courage upon public questions, without waiting for the permission or the orders of any boss, big or little. Its editor is nbody's vassal, and his journal stands for pure politics and good government; for the constitution and the flag for liberty and law; for honor and virtue; for home and country.

A bill has been introduced into the Legislature, with a good prospect of passing both Houses, to create liquor license commissions, placing the functions now exercised by the court in the hands of commissioners in each county. The bill provides for three persons by the court in each county to serve for three years. These commissioners shall sit in the court house of the county at such times as they shall deem necessary for the proper performance of their duties and hear applications for licenses in the same manner as is done by the courts at present. Each commissioner shall receive $10 a day to be paid out of the license fees. The purpose of the bill is not clear unless it is intended to relieve the judges of a part of their labors. In this county, at least, the departure will be regretted, if the bill becomes a law.

A newspaper which undertakes the task of pleasing everybody will not only fail in this, but will not succeed in pleasing anybody. Therefore the best course is to adhere to the policy that seems right, whatever the question at issue, and assume, as a risk of the undertaking, the chance of giving offence.

It is noticeable that a paper, whose utterances are fair according to the light it has, may not receive any open or boisterous endorsement, but it gains in strength and influence. The kindly feeling entertained toward it is expressed in silent support. The time, no doubt, comes when it gives offence in some quarters, attacks a selfish interest, gives bigotry a few jolts, ridicules and condemns hypocrisy, touches, inadvertently perhaps, but more likely with full knowledge, a spot already sore. Then there is a howl and noise enough. Somebody threatens to stop the paper, which is lamentable. Or he will decline to advertise, which is deplorable. Perhaps he threatens to whip the editor, which is a more serious matter, and requires the exercise of diplomacy and agility. Thus a paper should not essay the task of trying to please everybody, and if it is to command respect it will not waste effort in this direction, for the accomplishment is not only grotesquely impossible but the editor who pauses to weep at every fresh demonstration of his ability in this direction will find time for little else during the intervals.

It was a howling mob that burned the negro at Leavenworth. The offer of a reward by the governor of Kansas or any attempt to bring the malefactors to justice would be a howling farce.—Duluth News-Tribune.

Mindful that he is in the midst of that fierce light that beats upon a throne, if Edward VII ever plays another game of baccarat he will be at extraordinary pains to keep it dark.—Anaconda Standard.

It is somewhat remarkable that soon is never high noon except when somebody strictly in society gets married. Then it is never anything else.—Pittsburg Times.

MILEAGE A FICTION.

Members of Congress are allowed mileage at the rate of 20 cents, which is altogether more than the cost of it to them, and is therefore an injustice to the public. Such compensation would pay their railroad fare, Pullman expenses, meals enroute, tips to the porter and leave a tidy sum over. In many parts of the country tariff rates are not over 3 cents per mile, and in the East they are even less than this. Nowhere do they approach 20 cents. The granting of exorbitant mileage is in consequence but a roundabout way of adding to the Congressional salary. If the salary is too small it should be openly and frankly increased, and the mileage fiction eliminated.

There are men in Congress who do not pay railroad fare. They have passes thrust upon them, but these same men may be observed accepting their mileage just as the rest do. If they pay full fare they are making good wages. For the Hawaiian delegate's trip the country must foot a bill of $1,000, which at a moderate estimate is three times more than the trip could have cost him if he paid full rates the entire distance. It would be well to conduct this phase of the national business in a business-like way. Let the traveling statesman take a receipt for his legitimate expenditures and be reimbursed out of the treasury, or let him have as much more salary as will preclude the privilege of putting in an absurd account for expenses to which he has not been subject.

Editor Sellers of the Republican has incurred the wrath of the Doylestown officers of the Bucks County Historical Society, for his criticism of the bill introduced by Senator Rice which provides that County Commissioners may pay $500 annually to Historical Societies to defray their running expenses. The Republican said:

We do not believe that Senator Rice will urge this bill for passage. He has probably introduced it merely to oblige some one or more of his constituents who are interested in Historical Societies but who want their expenses defrayed without the necessity of going down into their own pockets for the money. Historical Societies generally, we do not believe, want this appropriation. They do not care to become the objects of charity. They prefer to pay the expenses of their respective organizations themselves and be free and independent. There have been instances, however, when Historical Societies have been run largely in the interests of certain of its officials who used the organization for their own pecuniary profit. Of course, such Societies would be glad to get an annual appropriation from the county in order that the pickings of its officials might be augmented. Proper encouragement of Historical Societies is all right. The appropriation bill referred to is not of that character. Either Senator Rice has been imposed upon or he has acted merely as an intermediary. He has a record that is opposed to the misappropriation of public funds, and he will not favor the passage of an appropriation which he does not believe is fully justified.

The Democrat has uttered a yell of "libel." To one who is not familiar with the inner workings of the local Historical Society it would appear that the Republican touched a vital spot, when an observation concerning Historical Societies in general is misconstrued into a direct charge against officers of the Bucks County Historical Society in particular. The protesting paper has aroused suspicion.

"What Fools These Mortals Be."

The passing of Queen Victoria is the most notable event in the first month of the new century. For nearly eight decades she occupied as an Austrian paper says, "a wonderful place in the hearts of her people and in the politics of the world." The duties of her position were most arduous up to almost the last hour she performed them. She is said to have signed about fifty thousand documents yearly. No dispatch of any importance was ever sent off without her approval. The proceedings of Parliament were closely watched by her, and all the power vested in her was used ever on the side of peace and justice. The London Times speaks of her as "smoothing the rugged places of international relations." Labouchere declares that "her influence for peace has always been felt in continental politics." Secretary Gage said of her: "A sovereign under the theory of divine right she was in reality the head of a highly democratic state" and it was given her "to guide the unfolding destines of a mighty nation. She lived her life in the full glare of that fierce light that beats upon a throne." The circumstances of her birth, her childhood, her coronation, her girlhood, her courtship, her marriage, the birth of her children, her widowhood, her old age, and her death, have been told and retold till they are as faimliar to us as the words of the catechism and the new testament. No woman ever suffered such publicity as Britian's beloved Queen.

And what was the effect of this participation in the politics of the world? Did any one ever intimate to Queen Victoria that a woman could not be a good Queen and at the same time a good wife and mother? When she signed those fifty thousand political documents, did her Prime Ministers tell her that she ought to be darning the Prince Consort's socks and sewing on his buttons? When she opened Parliament, did the members of the House of Lords and the House of Commons get up and intimate that she ought to be at home rocking the cradles of the infant princes and princesses? Did the journalists of England say that the publicity incident to her queenly position was robbing her of her womanly delicacy and charm? Did the historians of her time write her down as an unsexed, degraded, unwomanly woman who had left her sphere to dabble in the mire of "international politics?" Perish the thought. The chorus of eulogy that was sung around her death-bed was but a repetition of that which resounded all through her long life. Her laureates praised her in their noblest verse; her statesmen delighted to do honor to her judgment and her common sense in matters political; no historian ever wrote of her save in praise of her virtues; and as for the masses of her people they loved her as a mother and revered her as a queen. "She will live," says Secretary Gage, "in the hearts of the people wherever the English tongue is spoken, as a good woman, a wise ruler, and a worthy exemplar of all who may be clothed with political responsibility, whether under the Democratic or the aristocratic forms of government." "Let us think of her this morning,' says the London Chronicle" by her highest title; not by her crown and scepter, but by her own magnificent and splendid ideal of womanhood." "This most respected of all women," says one of the head lines in the Courier Journal. "Loved more as a woman than as a queen," says another. And yet—if our American woman expresses a modest wish to participate in politics to the small extent of voting two or three times a year, what happens? Why the American statesman and preachers and journalists who have been lauding a royal politician to the skies would tell their humble compatriot that she was an unsexed, unwomanly, degraded creature, and they would shake a darning basket and cradle before her eyes and majestically order her back to her sphere. "What fools these mortals be!"

Good Roads in New Jersey.

The energy which the people of New Jersey are displaying in the direction of improved roads might be profitably emulated by the people of this and other States. As rapidly as possible miles of almost impassable sand roads are being transformed into safe, smooth and easy driving highways, and there are few counties that have not at least some of this type.

In dealing with the question of roads and road making the New Jersey authorities proceed on the theory that the highways belong to the general public, regardless of residence. Acting on this assumption, the Legislature has ordained that when two-thirds of the property owners along a certain road desire its improvement and agree to pay 10 per cent. of the cost, the state shall give aid to complete the work to the amount of one-third the whole, and the county to settle the balance of the bill.

The movement for better roads in New Jersey began less than ten years ago, and the State's Aid act was the outcome. As with most great movements this one at the outset met with bitter opposition because it was not thoroughly understood. It was feared that taxation would be heavier, but with clearer comprehension of the benefits arising, and the fears of extra taxation having been shown to be groundless, the opposition practically died out, and some of those who were the most strenuous in fighting are now among the foremost advocates of the movement. In every county, except six, State aid has been extended, fully 1,000 miles of improved roads constructed and applications have been made for 500 miles more in excess of those for which contracts have been awarded.

The completed work has cost the State and counties $2,001,475, and that which is under way will take about $500,000 more. This aggregate sum is not large when it is considered that the sum covers the expenditures of about eight years, and when it is realized how vast are the benefits which have resulted to the people of the State. Henry Q. Budd, the State Road Commissioner, clearly shows, in a recent interview, what some of these benefits are. He says:

"Stone roads place the farmer almost at the door of the consumer, saving many intermediates, all of whom are forced to have a profit. His increased loads, the saving in transportation, the dispensing with the commission men and the delivering of the produce to the grocers' or consumers' doors has resulted in saving to the individual farmer sums ranging from $10 to $20 on each load. Therefore, you cannot wonder that the movement has been popular with the farmers. The tax sits so lightly on them it makes no comparison to the cost of wading through sand and mud with small loads, and returning with scarcely enough cash to pay expenses. From being freed from the use of toll roads there is also a saving to the farmer of from $50 to $150 per year, and a still heavier tax on the wear and the time lost in dragging through sand and mud, and the difference between the cost of carting one ton and four tons at one haul. It has made living in the country more delightful, and brought into easy communication people who would otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance, and thus has added new charms to social life."

New Jersey is the pioneer in giving State aid for good road making, and, as a consequence, has more miles of improved highways than any other State in the Union. It will not be an easy task to overtake it in this good work; but, nevertheless, this and other States might try, for the principle is a sound one.

Every time anybody mentions the Hague peace conference to him the czar of Russia orders another battleship.—St. Paul Globe.

Clean Bread

Can't be made by foul hands and clean, pure blood can't be made by a foul stomach. The blood is made by the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition.

When these are diseased they contaminate every drop of blood made from the food they act upon, and this contamination is carried through the whole body. It may settle in the liver, kidneys, heart or lungs but the root of the disease is in the stomach. Cure the stomach and you cure the disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the organs of digestion and nutrition perfectly and permanently. It purifies the blood, and so by curing the cause of disease, cures many forms of disease in organs remote from the stomach.

"For the past sixteen years I have had torpid liver and indigestion and tried many doctors and patent medicines but I could not get a cure," writes Mrs. Simeon Suggs, of Clyde, Sabine Parish, La. "Three months ago I thought I would try Dr. R. V. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and his 'Pleasant Pellets.' I got six bottles of each and I received a good result in a week, and to-day I am cured sound and well. The symptoms were coated tongue, specks before the eyes, disposed to be cross and irritable, foul stomach, bad taste in the mouth, tired feeling, a feeling of dread or fear, headache, yellow skin, etc. These symptoms did not all appear at once. If sufferers from such troubles will take Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' as directed in pamphlets wrapping bottles, they will bring back the bloom of life as it did with me."

GAIN FLESH

An Absolute Necessity in Many Cases.

A DECREASE IN WEIGHT FREQUENTLY INDICATES A DECLINE.

THE WAY IT ACTS ON A DEPLETED CONSTITUTION IS SIMPLY MARVELOUS.

Are you getting thin? If you are you had better watch yourself. Take Vinol. It will build you up quickly and surely.

A healthy man does not vary much from year to year in his weight. This is as it should be. Vinol enables the organs of the body to renew flesh, muscle tissue, bone structure, and attends to purifying the great vital current of the human system, the blood.

Vinol contains the active curative properties of Cod-Liver Oil in a highly concentrated state, and is the most wonderful tonic that we have ever had anything to do with.

Vinol acts upon the stomach in a beneficial way, enabling it to obtain for itself the necessary ingredients from the food that is taken into it to build up the pure healthy body and increase the weight.

Mr. H. M. Stufell, who is a well-known passenger trainman on the Boston and Maine Railroad, suffered, as many railroad men do, with kidney and other troubles. He writes as follows:

"My kidneys troubled me a great deal, my bowels were very irregular, I had great distress in my stomach, suffered with bilious headaches, had no appetite, could not sleep nights, and was losing flesh rapidly. I began to take Vinol, I am now on my third bottle, and it is doing wonders for me. My kidneys are better, my bowels are again regular, my stomach no longer troubles me, and no more headaches, and as for appetite, don't speak of it; I sleep like a top and have gained thirteen pounds. You can count on me always to recommend Vinol as the king of medicines."

With many such testimonials as the above coming before us, it is not strange that we endorse Vinol as strongly as we do. We unhesitatingly agree to return to any one who has taken Vinol and is not satisfied that it has accomplished all that we claim for it every cent that they have paid us for this remedy.

There is nothing that adds to the selling value or the renting value of a house like good paint—there is nothing that makes home more home-like than good paint. It pays to paint. The better the paint, the better it pays. Then if you are going to paint you want the best material for it.

Let us Give You a Pointer.

THE GRIP EPIDEMIC.

The Disease More Prevalent than Ever and Quite as Fatal. The Best Treatment.

The grip has surprised the doctors and health authorities this season by its rapid spread and by some novel symptoms. While it spares nobody it is proving especially dangerous to middle-aged and elderly persons. In many cases either a fatal onset of pneumonia, or a complete breakdown of health and strength, is apt to follow an attack of grip.

The wise course for all is prevention. By wearing a Benson's Porous Plaster on the chest and back you protect the lungs from cold and chill and (with ordinary care) you are safe from grip.

For those who are already suffering from grip, or from usual winter coughs and colds, Benson's Plasters are a sure and speedy relief and cure. Highly medicinal and scientific.

Dr. Alison Over-Ruled in Church Court.

At a regular meeting of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North held in the Witherspoon building on Tuesday nearly the entire afternoon session was occupied in considering an appeal from the action of the session of the Bristol Presbyterian church. At a former meeting of the Presbytery a committee, composed of Rev. Dr. John Peacock, chairman, Dr. L. F. Benson, Rev. Dr. W. P. White and Elders Montgomery Evans and William Wynkopp, was appointed to investigate the action of Dr. Alison in abruptly chopping off the heads of church society officers and Sunday school teachers.

At Tuesday's meeting Dr. Peacock read the committee's lengthy findings in the case which was a scathing condemnation of the "arbitrary, illegal and unconstitutional" method pursued by Dr. Alison's session. The report which was practically unanimously adopted by the members of Presbytery ordered the session to reinstate the decapitated officers, and also to expunge from the church records all reference to the arbitrary action of the session.

In a lengthy speech Dr. Alison protested against the adoption of the committee's report, which he denounced as an awful condemnation of his actions. If Presbytery agreed with the committee he declared he could not go back to Bristol and resume his charge, but would be compelled to resign. He said his congregation was loyal to him and would resent the Presbytery's action. He later threatened to appeal to Synod if the report was adopted. He told his fellow Presbyters that he was pleading for the official life of himself and his session. Dr. Alison in his speech was scathing in his arraignment of the ladies whom he removed from office. Notwitstanding that they were present he spoke of them in a most insulting and ungentlemanly manner. To such an extent did he go in his personalities that the speaker was rebuked by members of Presbytery for the bitter vindictiveness displayed. The report was taken up by sections, and overwhelmingly adopted.

The deposed officers of the Helping Hand Society and teachers in the Sunday school after being reinstated by the action of the Presbytery have since resigned their offices, feeling that they can no longer act in harmony with the pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

So in order that you may be sure to get it you should order next "Sunday's Press" of your newsdealer today.

The inspector stated that the government rents splendid offices in larger towns than Bristol for considerable less money.

Candidates for Justice of the Peace.

At the borough election to be held on Tuesday, February 19, two Justices of the Peace will be eleted. There are three candidates for the plaes. William Louderbough and Edward N. Booz, the present incumbents, were renominated by the Republicans. In the hopes of electing a candidate the Democrats made but one nomination, Robert Brooks.

'Squire Louderbough is now completing his fourth term as Justice,, having served for twenty years, and will in all probability be re-elected by a full vote of his party. He was born in Bristol township sixty-four years ago, and moved into the borough when twenty-six years of age Mr Louderbough has been a stalwart Republican ever since he was a voter, and he is justly proud of the fact that for forty-three years he has only once failed to participate in an election. Before the borough was divided into wards Mr. Louderbough was elected to Council After serving one year he resigned to accept the Republican nomination for Constable and was elected by four votes over Strickland Yardley, who was taken up by the Democrats. When the borough was divided into wards he was elected Constable from the Third ward and was also elected High Constable. As a candidate for Justice of the Peace he has always been elected by good majorities.

Edward N. Booz in May next will complete his tenth year as Justice, having served two terms. Mr. Booz is nearing the allotted term of life. He came to Bristol fifteen years ago from Lower Bensalem. His has been a life of rugged honesty, and as a Justice of the Peace has administered the duties of his office in a fearless and conscientious manner. Mr. Booz is a trustee and deacon of the First Baptist Church, of Bristol.

Penn Valley Stock Farm Suit.

The Penn Valley Stock Farm case, in which a bill of equity was filed in the common pleas court some weeks ago, to restrain Edward Winter, reputed owner, from selling or otherwise disposing of the stock or property upon the ground that they belonged to his sisters, Mrs. Sarah D. Cox and Mrs. Emily Banes, took another turn Monday afternoon, when Winter and Patrick Lafferty, of the Sharon Hill Stock Farm, were called before Magistrate Cunningham, in Philadelphia, to answer to the charge of conspiracy, embezzlement, larceny and attempt to defraud.

Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Banes were present at the hearing. Mrs. Cox testified that she and her sister were the bona fide owners of the property, and that Winter, their brother, was placed in charge of the farm for the time being as agent, she furnishing all the money for the purchase of the farm, and stock and for the running expenses. The deed for the farm, she testified, was made out in the name of Edward Winter because he was her brother and she believed him honest.

For the money advanced she took no writings or receipts. Twenty thousand dollars was paid for the property, of which $8000 was a cash payment. For the remaining $12,000 a mortgage was given. Since the creation of the mortgage further payments had been made and the mortgage reduced to $4300.

She also stated that through her attorney her brother, Winter, had offered to settle the affair and sign over the farm and stock to her and Mrs. Banes on the payment of $12,000, of which she understood Patrick Lafferty was to receive $5000.

By her statement over $40,000 had been expended in the purchase of stock, the money having been furnished by her to Winter, and all stock sold by Winter was under her authority, he acting as her agent.

She also claimed that she had papers and telegrams to show that Winter was her agent, and had received instructions from her to buy and sell.

Last November trouble began between the sisters and their brother, and she was informed that the stallion Oakland Baron had been taken away, and Winter had threatened to "do her up." Winter got money from her to pay the wages of the men at her house and to pay for feed and horses. Oakland Baron had been taken away without her consent; also the other horses after the bill in equity filed had enjoined Lafferty or Winter from removing any of the farm property.

The case was continued for a further hearing on Thursday, when other witnesses will be heard and a decision rendered by the magistrate.

The suit in equity to decide the ownership of the farm is set for February 16 at Doyestown.

A. M. E. Church Notes.

A few evenings ago about thirty members and friends of the A. M. E. Church, on Woodside, called at the residence of Charles Young, where the Rev. Theobald A. Smythe makes his home, and presented the latter with a purse of money. Mr. Smythe in a few appropriate words acknowledged the gift and expressed the hope that the work of God in Bristol would so prosper among all denominations as to give assurance to the belief that the kingdoms of this world are indeed to become the kingdoms of our God, and of His Christ. The rest of the evening was spent in singing, etc. Refreshments were served by J. D. Freeman, Mrs. Clara Pierce, Misses Jennie Freeman and Anna Hance.

On last Sunday the pastor preached at 10.30 a. m., 3 p. m., and 7.45 p. m., to large congregations, and two persons were received on probation.

Next Sunday there will be preaching at 10.30 a. m. and 7.45 p. m. Topic for evening discourse, Looking Back."

On Tuesday evening, February 12, the young people will celebrate the anniversary of Lincoln's birthday. To all of these services a cordial invitation is extended to persons without a church home. Strangers made welcome.

BASKET BALL.

Won the Home Game.

In a game that failed to inspire the fairly large audience the home team won from Pennsylvania last Thursday evening by the score of 24 to 17. While the visitors put up about the best game they have played here the locals did not get warmed up to the thrilling point. The frequent calling of time by the Quakers was exceedingly wearisome. It is well they do not have another game here this season, as they would undoubtedly prove a poor drawing card. The score at the end of the first half was 17 to 7 in Bristol's favor.

The line-up:

Bristol.	Positions.	Pennsylvania.
Klein	forward	Donlon, Keene
Hough	forward	Deal
Everingham Mulliner	centre	Charlton
Bennett	guard	Lang
Plant	guard	Heite

Goals from field—Klein 4, Hough 3, Everingham, Mulliner, Keen 2, Donlon, Deal, Lang. Goals from offense—Everingham 8, Klein 3, Deal 7. Offences—Klein, Hough 2, Mulliner 3, Plant 3, Bennett 2, Keen, Donlon, Deal 2, Charlton 2, Lang 3, Heite 7. Time—20-minute havles. Referee—M. A. Riley.

Camden Won.

Bristol went to Camden on Saturday and repeated the performance of losing the game by two points. The score was 34 to 32. Plant was unable to hold Cramer and that forward tallied four times. Everingham broke all records and covered himself with glory by making twenty points from the 15-foot line on throws from offences. Camden took the lead and were never headed. If it had not been for Everingham's accuracy Bristol would have showed up badly in the final score. The line-up:

Camden.	Positions.	Bristol.
Cramer	forward	Klein
Ferat	forward	Bennett, Hough
Carr	centre	Everingham
Dippy	guard	Snow, Bennett
Middleton	guard	Plant

Goals from field—Cramer 4, Ferat 2, Carr 2, Dippy 2, Middleton, Klein 2, Hough 2, Everingham, Bennett. Goals from offence—Ferat 12, Everingham 20. Offences—Klein 3, Hough 4, Everingham 4, Snow, Bennett, Plant 8, Cramer 8, Ferat 5, Carr, Dippy 8. Referee—E. C. Rutschman. Time of halves—20 minutes.

Basket Ball Notes.

New York tonight.

Millville at Bristol Saturday night.

Bristol can regain third place by winning tonight.

Rutschman as a competent National League referee, has lost favor with about all of the teams.

Dippy has participated in every game played by Camden so far this season, notwithstanding his broken nose.

Deal's lucky shot from deep centre saved him from being shut out without a field goal. Bennett played him hard.

It is generally conceded that Pennsylvania made a grave error in releasing the Geddes brothers. They are excellent players.

Hough and Klein have no equals in the business for quick and accurate shooting. Other forwards require a certain amount of time to get into a position to shoot.

Burlington won its first game away from home since dropping out of the league on Saturday night when they defeated the strong St. James team of the Inter-State League by the score of 17 to 15.

Everingham made a new free throw record on Saturday at Camden. He performed the remarkable feat of scoring 20 times out of 28 chances. The former record was held by Cooper of Trenton with 12.

Dietrich, of the New York team, did not play in the last two games. He has been put on the bench for his work in the Trenton and Camden games, and Everline, of the Metropolitans, has been signed, so that the team will not be shorthanded.

Klein heads the December National League record for the greatest number of field goals with 91 to his credit. His nearest competitor is his partner, Hough, with 65. Wendleken follows with 54. Hough holds the record for the greatest number of games played—22. Klein and Plant follow with 20 games each.

The sporting editor of the Ledger has come to the conclusion that Hough has lost much of the snap and dash which marked his former work. As the disgruntled sporting editor some time ago predicted Hough would not be physically able to finish the season, an attempt is now made to justify his ponderous wisdom. Nevertheless Hough is in splendid form and plays far better than at the start of his league career. He probably does not score as many goals for the simple reason that the guards of every team pitted against Bristol fairly sit on him, but he manages to sneak a few each game, notwithstanding.

Tullytown Notes.

Mrs. Joseph Briggs was a visitor to Philadelphia on last Tuesday.

Theodore Burton is still confined to his bed but is improving in health.

Last Monday evening about a score of the members of Keetowah Tribe, I. O. R. M., of Tullytown, assembled around the camp fire at Mohican's wigwam in Bristol. The Past Sachem's degree was administered to those entitled and the Tullytown-boys returned on the midnight train much pleased with the reception and entertainment of the Bristol tribe.

Arguments in favor of this or that candidate for the election to be held February 19th are heard every evening in the stores. So far as the fight for Council is concerned it should be simply a question between those favoing the improvement of the town and those against it.

Tullytown needs all the improvements that can be induced to come here and taxpayers and voters generally should bear this in mind at the election a week from next Tuesday.

This borough with its fine location along the Delaware River, with its excellent train service, both freight and passenger, ought to advance with rapid strides, and its natural facilities for business and commerce ought to cause it to grow rapidly. This it has not done, its population having remained nearly the same for the past decade. The residents of the town owe it to themselves and to their borough to put men into office who are progressive and who will be active in promoting the development of the town.

It is said that the final drawings will be completed and the bids for the construction of the building asked for by May. It will be constructed of brick, stone, steel and iron and will be entirely fire poof. As it will be on the site of the present store, it will be built in quarters, so as not to stop business. When completed it will measure 350 feet by 476 feet, and will be one of the largest and finest department stores in the world.

A School for Nursing.

There is probably no profession that is open to women that is so much in accordance with the natural refinement, taste, and ability of true womanhood as that of the trained nurse.

The call for skilled nurses and trained companions for the sick and for invalids is constantly increasing. The demand is for more nurses.

It is not only a genteel and useful occupation but the remuneration is very liberal, frequently reaching $25.00 and over per week, including all expenses.

The school for nurses of the Philadelphia Nurse Supply and Medical Dispensary has a complete course which can be finished in ten weeks. It includes lectures, practical demonstrations, thorough training in emergency measures, home nursing and hospital methods.

The corporation is composed of prominent citizens of Philadelphia, including a Judge of the Philadelphia Courts, physicians, eminent business men and clergymen representing all the leading religious denominations. The work is conducted at a very nominal expense and entirely in the interest of the public and those taking the course. The subject matter of the course is treated in a very direct and practical way and will be found instructive, fascinating and of life-long interest and value. The information and the skill which the student acquires is immediately available in the first emergency that arises. She is able to manage and direct in any case of illness that may enter the home. She will be a controlling force in the home and community in the direction of health and safety. The possession of such attainments is a source of power in every situation, bringing to the individual and to others a sense of security and restfulness. Diplomas are issued to those who complete the course.
